Kent College Dubai

Overview

Kent College Dubai is a top British International School in Dubai which opened in 2016 with close ties to their sister school in Canterbury, England. The performing arts school includes two drama studios, a dance studio and a recording studio.

“With my personal background and training in dance, I have known about Harlequin floors since I was about 17 years old. The quality and sustainability of a dance floor is very important so the students and I really appreciate our new Harlequin floor. Our students use the space every day for their dance and drama lessons.”

Teacher of Performing Arts
